

HISTORY :- B.A. PART – I, SEMESTER – Ist

Course Objective and Outcome

Objective :-

- To enable the students to know the story of march of man from state of nature to the status of food products with sufficient leisure in land attends to improve his quality of life.
- To give the students a picture of achievements state wise particularly in Bronze age in India.
- To educate the students how India became poised for political unity under the Mauryas and taken forward by Kushanas.
- To enable the students to grasp urbanization and change of quality of polity under “Guptas.”
- To enable the students to know the differences sources of sultanate period 1206 A.D. – 1526 A.D.
- To impress the students the Art and architecture and the literature and also the decaying and end of Sultanate.

HISTORY :- B.A. PART – I, SEMESTER – IIInd

Course Objective and Outcome

Objective :-

- To enable the students to grasp urbanization and change of quality of polity under Chalukyas and Vardhanas.
- To introduce the students about the source of early material Indian History, state of Indian feudalism and emergence of Rajputs.
- To enable the students to know the evolution of political structure and Kingship of Bahamani and Vijaynagar Kingdoms in South India.
- The students would have got how Bhakti movements and Sufism brought in amity in place of enmity between Hindus and Muslims.

HISTORY :- B.A. PART – II , SEMESTER – IIIrd

Course Objective and Outcome

Objective :-

- To give an idea about the establishment of Mugal rule in India.
- To give an idea Akbar's Contribution in consolidation of Mugal Rule.
- To give the knowledge of Mugal Society, economy and somewhat liberal religious policy.
- To give students the knowledge how Aurangzeb's conflict with Rajputs and Marathas.
- To enable the students to know the state of India, her society and economy, mercantilism, foreign trade and coming of Europeans.

HISTORY :- B.A. PART – II , SEMESTER – IVth

Course Objective and Outcome

Objective :-

- To give the students the knowledge about the forgotten nationalism that bounced back under Congress.
- To give a vivid picture of Gandhi's taking command of Congress party and carry forward the freedom struggle upto Independence.
- Students would have acquired themselves with the coming up Gandhi Ji and taking command of freedom struggle in the most peaceful and constructive in the attainment of Independence in India.
- Students would got fair idea about political reforms : Act of 1919, Poona Pact, Act of 1935.

HISTORY :- B.A. PART – III , SEMESTER – Vth

Course Objective and Outcome

Objective :-

- The students would have acquired sufficient knowledge regarding the meaning and importance of Renaissance a heralded of Modern times.
- The students would have known the importance of reformation of Christianity.
- The students would have gotten a clear picture at the importance of agriculture, commerce and Industrial growth for the sustained growth of national economics.

HISTORY :- B.A. PART – III , SEMESTER – VIth

Course Objective and Outcome

Objective :-

- The students would have acquired knowledge about Industrialisation, agriculture development in Europe.
- The students might have understood the stories of life condition of American native, the emergences of Europeans, the positive and negative points there of, foundation of colonies etc.
- Students must have acquired knowledge about French revolution.
- To give the students the knowledge of rise of liberal democracy in England.
- To give the students knowledge about take side of Imperialism namely Militarism, formation of power blocks, fascism and Nazism, Spanich Civil War, World War – I and World War – II.