

Academic Session 2019-20

Programme and Course Outcome :

Subject : Political Science.

Its importance : Political Science is considered as mother of all sciences i.e. Public Administration, Sociology, History, Economic, Geography etc. History is "grave yard of rulers". Infact they create history and doing it for time immemorial. Moreover; they have made the reading of subject of history more interesting through their valour, great adventures and valuable works done in various fields. Granths like Mahabharat and Geeta were inspired by the battle of Kurukshetra fought between forces of Kauravas and Pandwas. Even Kautilya's Arthshastra is mostly related ^{to} good governance and imphasizing on good qualities of a ruler.

But our main objective here is related to curriculam in the subject of Political Science at UG level (six semester course) and after completion of course it will help the students in their preparation for bright future.

Programme outcome as under :

1. Students can pursue further study by doing MA, PHD and advance study in the subject of Political Science.
2. Helpful for LLB and LLM degrees.
3. Better understanding of the Political activities / incidents happening at national and international levels.
4. Helpful to students in discussions on Political issues.
5. Helpful in making independent and impartial judgement on various political issues.
6. Writing critical articles for newspapers, magazines may leads to change in policy making decision. Political reforms etc.

Job Opportunities :

Govt. and Private sectors :

1. The students may get jobs in education department as Assistant Professor in colleges / universities, Defense forces.
2. At school cadre – as Lecturer in Political Science / Public Administration.
3. As a Political Advisor to Govt.
4. State level jobs and centre level jobs through State Public Service Commission and UPSC.
5. Political Journalist / Political Analyst.
6. Ambassador or Job at UNO.

7. May start his NGO / Self employed.
8. May become a specialist for a particular region.

Course Objective :

B.A. I (1st Sem and IInd Sem) – Paper: the constitution of India

Specific outcome: It will help students understanding the making of Indian constitution, its various sources, their fundamental rights and duties, main focus is on to be a good citizen.

Powers and emergency powers of President and misuse of Art 352 and 356. To make them familiar with law making process including amendment and how the centre- state relations have changed / tilted in favour of centre. The shortcomings of election and election reforms.

B.A. II Course (3rd Sem. and 4th Sem.)

Paper : The Indian Modern Thinkers

Specific Outcome : The students will get knowledge about the life struggles and great works and writings of Raja Ram Mohan Roy, Swami Vivekanand, Swami Dayanand, Bal Gangadhar Tilak, Dadabhai Noaraji, Bal Krishan Gokhle, Gandhi, Bhagat Singh, Nehru, M.N. Roy etc. The students will get inspiration from them. It will help them, develop their spirit of Nationalism, Humanism and Patriotism. The students will relies how hard work pays?

B.A. III (5th Sem and 6th Sem.)

Course paper : International Relation and International Organization :

Specific outcome: The students will benefit from knowledge of International Relations, focus will be on how state actors play an important role in International Politics. The importance of National Interest in determinations of International decision making process. The students will be familiar with the compulsions of leaders of world origin of UNO and how UNO, particularly security council is dominated by Permanent Members. Moreover, its main agencies and their main objectives and important role played by various agencies in developing and poorer countries of the world. No doubt ; Political Science has its importance and utility in number of ways for students at national and international level.